

A young woman with a black headband and a yellow sweatshirt is smiling and leaning her head against an older woman. The older woman is wearing a white sweater with colorful horizontal stripes and is also smiling. The background is bright blue with large, thick orange abstract shapes, including a large 'C' or '3' shape on the left and a smaller circle on the right.

A Future in Direct Support

Become a Direct Support Professional.
Make A Difference.
Make it Your Career.

Use your big heart for a higher purpose.

Help people with developmental disability live fully.

Be part of a strong professional team.

Build a career in human services that matters.

Share your knowledge with the world.

Secure a financially stable and fulfilling future.

Choose a Career in Direct Support That Matters

As a Direct Support Professional in Connecticut, you'll help individuals with intellectual and developmental disability live their best lives while growing your own career in human services or healthcare. Enjoy a flexible work schedule, stay within your own community, and receive valuable benefits like health insurance and a pension. Gain hands-on experience with on-the-job training and take advantage of opportunities for growth and advancement. No degree or experience is needed.

NOW HIRING

Statewide opportunities to become a Direct Support Professional with a supportive network and on-the-job training. No experience required. Apply today at DSPJobs.ct.gov